

About Acuitas Therapeutics

Acuitas is a private biotechnology company based in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada. We are the premier global provider of delivery technology to enable new classes of nucleic acid therapeutics. Acuitas is partnered with multiple international, biotechnology and pharmaceutical partners. These partnerships are focused on bringing new vaccines and drugs into clinical development and to the marketplace. Acuitas fosters an inclusive and supportive work environment and our values are honesty, integrity, innovation and openness. We strive to work internally and with our partners in an ethical, collegiate and respectful manner.

Senior Director, Finance & Operations

Reporting to the President/CEO this individual will be responsible for both finance and operations and will contribute to strategic planning. She/he will work closely with the President/CEO, the Chief Scientific Officer and the Senior Director, Technology Development. Initially the Senior Director, Finance & Operations will have three direct reports.

On the finance side, responsibilities will include management and oversight of internal bookkeeping and accounting functions and external liaison with auditors and financial advisors (presently PwC). This position is expected to oversee all invoicing relating to provision of R&D support (FTE billing), milestone and royalty payments, and additional partner financial obligations. Acuitas is partnered with multiple international biotechnology and pharmaceutical companies and experience with international revenues would be an asset. The Senior Director, Finance & Operations will also monitor expenses in accordance with annual or quarterly budgets. The position will be responsible for financial reporting including monthly, quarter and year-end reporting and tax filings (GST, PST, and federal and provincial taxes). Acuitas is partnered with multiple international biotechnology and pharmaceutical companies. In addition, the Senior Director, Finance & Operations will be responsible for corporate tax planning in alignment with company strategic planning.

The Senior Director, Finance & Operations will also be responsible for operational activities. This will include facilities, information technology (IT), insurance and HR. The successful individual will work with other members of the management team on the development and implementation of strategic plans.

The successful candidate will have an MBA, CA or equivalent degree and more than five years industry experience. Experience in the biotechnology/pharmaceutical environment is an asset but not a requirement. The successful candidate will be a strategic thinker and problem-solver and have excellent verbal and written communication skills. She/he will excel in a fast-paced, growing environment and will enjoy working as part of a team. She/he will exhibit strong leadership skills and be an excellent mentor. She/he will share the company's values of honesty, integrity, innovation and openness. Compensation will be commensurate with the successful candidate's experience and qualifications.
